

FREE CLUBS WITH LOTS OF ACTIVITIES AND FUN OVER THE CHRISTMAS HOLIDAYS

Clubs are free to all children and young people eligible for benefits-related free school meals from Reception to Year 11.

Funded by the Department for Education, Lincolnshire County Council is working with schools, sports providers, leisure centres and early years and kids clubs to provide fun and exciting holiday clubs during the Christmas holidays. Each club is unique and offers lots of different enriching activities depending upon the venue.

All food, drink and snacks are provided, just make sure your child arrives at the club on time. If your child is unable to attend and a booking has been made, it is important that you contact the club at least 48 hours before to let them know your child is unable to attend so that the place can be offered to another child or young person.
