New Term – Good News

Imagine our delight when we opened our half term post and found a letter from Dr Caroline Johnson MP congratulating us on our published school results. We are going from strength to strength through the hard work of everybody involved in the whole school journey and we recognise that this starts from the minute the children join us in Little Eagles. Early experiences are vital for child development and our provision adds to the jigsaw puzzle of learning.

So, well done and thank you to everyone!

Annual General Meeting

Everyone is welcome.
Stay informed and get involved.

FOES AGM

We are proud to have fantastic group of volunteers that make up Friends of Eagle School (and Pre-School ☺)! As they are a registered charity they have to have an Annual General Meeting (AGM) every year to organise trustees and the committee, review the budget and make plans for the future. This group does a fantastic job of supporting school and Little Eagles so if you would like to attend, please feel free to join us at Eagle School on Wednesday 11th March at 6.15pm.

World Book Day

I suspect that you have not been able to escape the marketing everywhere about World Book Day costumes.

Whilst we are not dressing up as our 'World Book Day Thing', we know that when you're little these outfits become part of our play and encourage our creativity. So if your little one is desperate to wear it we will go with the flow ☺. We also appreciate that whilst WBD is Thursday 5th March, it is any day for those in Little Eagles.

This picture posted today sums up how we want to celebrate WBD – with books! Loving them and enjoying them as much as we can ☺.

Please bring your favourite book and we will ring a 'book bell' to signify 'stop for story' to help us continue to embed a love of reading.
